INFORMATION

Check-in time will be Friday night from 12:00pm-7:00pm. All meat must be inspected by the designated Chamber official. All U.S.D.A. inspection stickers must remain on the packaging until your check-in has been completed. All menu items must be prepared on site. All teams must have a fire extinguisher readily available at all times. All teams must have their own source of running water; a camping water bag with a valve would be acceptable for this. Each team shall have 3 basins for cleaning dishes, one for soapy water and two for rinsing. There must be either a basin with bleach water and a dish towel or sanitation wipes for cleaning. Any team member handling food shall wear latex free rubber gloves. All teams may use any combination of wood and charcoal for cooking. NO GAS GRILLS or fires shall be allowed. All teams are encouraged to have samples available to the public. Teams providing samples will be eligible for the People's Choice Award. All samples shall be traded for tasting tickets. NO MONEY SHALL BE EXCHANGED WITH THE PUBLIC. Teams will need to turn in the Tasting Tickets they have collected to the Chamber of Commerce official. The KCBS rules shall be followed. Turn in times will be strictly followed. Late turn ins will result in a score of 0. Each category will be judged on presentation, taste, tenderness and flavor. The top 3 winners of each category will be awarded in cash, plaque or ribbon. The team that is determined to be the Grand Champion will be awarded a cash prize and/or trophy. In case of a tie, turn in times shall be used as a deciding factor. This is a friendly competition~please have fun! For questions, please contact: Shannon Hutson (816) 305-7731 or Shane Mullins (816) 738-1653.
